LASSOING A BEAR.

How a Bold Texan Handled Bruin in a Mesquite Thicket.

[Baylor (Texas) Crescent.]

H. H. Fancher was trying to catch a horse, and was rapidly riding after him through a thicket of mesquite, when he suddenly came upon a huge bear. A chase at once commenced, Mr. Fancher attacking with his pistol, and bruin, probably nearly overcome by heat, trying to make a successful retreat. Mr. Fancher fired five shots without bringing down his game, and only one charge left, concluded to change his tactics. Uncoiling the rope used as a lariat, which was tied to his saddle, he made a lasso and attempted to rope the bear. The first attempt was unsuccessful, the rope getting in the animal's mouth. The next proved a successful throw, the rope getting on the bear's neck. A quick movement on the part of the bear jerked the rope out of Mr. Fancher's hand, and the bear resumed his retreat, closely followed by his pursuer on horseback.

Finding it difficult to approach the bear sufficiently near to catch hold of the rope, Mr. Fancher dismounted and commenced the chase on foot. Seeing this, the bear slacked his speed, evidently not caring if his pursuer did come up with him. He occasionally stopped and looked back, as if expecting company. Declining a hand-to-hand encounter with a large bear, Mr. Fancher returned to his horse, and calling to his cousin, Mr. T. Fancher, resumed the chase. With the aid of a stick he possessed himself with the end of the rope, which was about thirty feet in length, and fastened it to the horn of the saddle. Now commenced the frantic actions of the bear in his savage efforts to release himself. He plunged in every direction, nearly throwing the horse, and showing evident intention to release himself at all hazards. But his captor managed to retain his prisoner, and at the same time kept his horse out of the way of the savage beast until a shot from the sixshooter of his cousin put the bear hors de combat.

The fore paw exhibited by Mr. Francher, and left, with us, is the largest ever seen in this section, and indicates, so old hunters tell us, that the owner, in good condition, would have weighed 600 pounds.

A Much Married Man.

The late King of Burmah had during his lifetime fifty-three recognized wives, by whom he had a nice little family of 110 children, of whom fifty-nine survive him. Of the fifty-three wives, twelve died before the King, and of the remainder two were imprisoned by him on account of their supposed complicity in plots by their children, and two were expelled for adultery. Deducting those who died and these four, the King had, at the time of his death, thirty-seven recognized wives. Of these thirty-seven ladies one only was massacred by King Theebaw. No fewer than fourteen of this lady's children and grandchildren were massacred with her. Thirteen of the late King's wives quitted the palace either during his illness or just after his death. The remaining twenty-three are still in the palace, and of that number seven only are free, or believed to be so. The other sixteen are in confinement more or less strict. Seven are known to be in rigorous imprisonment; some are in double irons, half starved, and not permitted to have any attendants. One of the forty-eight sons born to the King, twenty-four were alive at the time of his death. Of these, fourteen are known to have been massacred by Theebaw. Four are now alive in India, leaving only six, including the present King, alive in Mandalay.

Two Political Pyramids.

When the Democrat, ready for the altar of his country, looks at this Republican pyramid, he begins to think of emigrating:

Ohio,
Iowa,
Maine,
Colorado,
California,
Connecticut.

He will certainly pack up when, on November 4th, the following States are added:

New York,
Minnesota,
Wisconsin,
Massachusetts,
Pennsylvania.

Joe Howard, a negro, played the banjo for pennies in the saloons, stores and streets of Jeffersonville, Ind. He was frequently allowed to perform in the millinery establishment of Mrs. Martin, a young white woman. His music won her, and one day they were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Miller, a negro. Miller and Howard are in jail awaiting trial, such wedlock being a crime in Indiana.

The French Forestry Department is satisfied that the forests directly increase the supply of water in their neighborhood. From careful observations at Senlis and Nancy, they have decided that it rains more abundantly in wooded tracts, and that while the leaves and branches give back the water quickly to the air, they prevent rapid evaporation from the ground, and are thus favorable to the formation of springs.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

At the recent review at Strasburg, many of the soldiers left their boots behind in the mud as they marched past before the Emperor.

Conscience impelled somebody to send $2500 anonymously to Izaac G. Jenkins, a Syracuse merchant, with the words, "I robbed you of this years ago."

Ben. Lowe, a circus acrobat, stood on his head for two hours, in a Texas barroom, on a wager, and the feat brought on brain fever, from which he died.

The Sultan of Zanzibar is civilized enough to give dinner parties in a European fashion, with music from an excellent band, decorated bills of fare, and all sorts of luxuries.

At the birthday entertainment of Chen Shu Tang, the Chinese Consul-General in San Francisco, luncheon was offered all day, and a dinner of forty courses was served in the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Gaul of Philadelphia went to a menagerie, and did not find all the animals that he had seen pictured on the street posters. He denounced the show from his pulpit as a humbug.

The railroad from the Naples Observatory to the foot of the cone of Vesuvius will be opened early next year. A steam engine at the summit will draw the cars up by a windlass.

A man jumped into a well, at Carrollton, Ill., for the purpose of suicide. Finding himself alive on reaching the bottom, he hanged himself with the well rope, and so accomplished death.

The editor of the Paris (Texas) Banner said in print that Lawyer Bonner was a murderous ruffian, and Bonner proved the justness of the characterization by shooting him dead in the street.

In a new melodrama at the Surry Theatre, London, a Thames boatman rows into sight and uncovers a man painted to represent a corpse just taken from the river. The audience goes wild with delight.

A coal heaver has astonished the people of Genoa by writing a drama that, though not without the blemishes resulting from defective education and artistic training, possesses on the whole extraordinary merit. It was played with great success, and the drama artist was called for by an applauding audience. He made his appearance on the stage in a white linen jacket.

Reed and Pell, the British Commissioners to examine American agriculture, are highly pleased with the Northwestern States and Territories. They say that Minnesota's climate is a luxury and her soil unsurpassed, her only need being people and trees, which will come in good time. They are now on a tour through Nebraska, Kansas and Texas.

REFORM IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Some of the leading eastern papers are now discussing what is termed the Quincy experiment. This experiment was a complete revolution in the system of teaching in the common schools of Quincy, Massachusetts.

The State of Massachusetts has long enjoyed an enviable reputation for the excellence of its public schools. Massachusetts is a very progressive State, perhaps because it has more radical thinkers to the square mile than any other section of the nation. So that it is not altogether surprising that the public school trustees of Quincy, instead of remaining satisfied with the system in use because it was admitted to be good, made a searching examination into it to determine its actual value. They became convinced that the education the children were receiving was superficial, that it was their memory not their reasoning power that was being developed. They concluded that the whole theory of instruction was wrong, that the children were being taught pretty much as parrots are. And, it should be remembered, the system of teaching in Quincy was the same that is pursued in what are called the best common schools throughout the country.

The school trustees of Quincy determined to try a complete change of system. They substituted practice for precept in the schools. They secured as superintendent an enthusiastic young German instructor of radical views. He secured a staff of teachers whom he imbued with his own idea of instruction, and the Quincy experiment began.

The reform began in the primary schools. Instead of learning to read by studying the alphabet the children were made familiar with short words written on the blackboard. They were taught to understand the meaning of combinations of words almost insensibly.

The number of studies in the grammar schools was cut down from seven to three—reading, writing and arithmetic. In the place of the old method of committing lessons from books to memory, the pupils were taught by incessant practice in school hours. They were obliged to write a great deal in school—not mechanically from copies, but from their heads. Thus by constant practice they rapidly acquired the art of composition and could write almost as easily as they could speak. Spelling and grammar were naturally acquired by the correction of errors.

The old course of text books was almost entirely abandoned. Fresh and entertaining articles in Scribner's and other current periodicals were substituted for the time-honored Reader. The new regime did not, however, include the teaching of drawing, which has been advocated by our esteemed contemporary on the Comstock. The idea was to reduce the number of studies rather than extend them; to teach a few branches of knowledge thoroughly, rather than give pupils a superficial smattering of many.

Charles Francis Adams, Jr., lives in Quincy, and is well known to the reading public, by his able articles in the Atlantic. He is a thinker and a close student of social questions. He describes the results of the new system as most gratifying. The new plan, Mr. Adams says, is "a complete negative of the whole present common school system, founded on a faith in the infinite capacity of children to know at an early age a little of everything."

The new system has been in use three years. Under it the pupils have made greater progress, and take an interest in their studies. The school trustees of Quincy are delighted with the success of their experiment. The tax-payers have reason to be, for the cost of keeping up the schools has been reduced from $19 25 for each scholar per year to $15 68.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Authors' Carnival is meeting with great success in San Francisco. The Mechanics' Pavilion has been nightly thronged with a multitude of curious spectators. It is the first entertainment of the kind that has ever been attempted on this coast, and its success shows how great has been the progress of San Francisco in culture as well as in wealth. The plan of the entertainment is very simple. The space at disposal is divided up into "booths," designated by the name of any author. Each booth is appropriately decorated, and attended by ladies and gentlemen in character costume. Thus in the Shakespeare booth may be seen Hamlet stalking in his inky cloak, or Portia in the robe of justice. In the Bret Harte booth the Washoe miner is caricatured as in the tales of that imaginative author.

The sad accident this morning should suggest to railroad men the wisdom of accident insurance. The rate would be less than twenty dollars per year on the thousand dollars in case of death. This would also entitle the bearer to a weekly payment in case of injury. It is a man's duty to provide for his family, and there are plenty of honest and reliable companies willing to take such risks.

Look out for counterfeit $5 pieces. There are some in circulation in California.

A CHANGE IN THE GRANT PROGRAMME.

The Enterprise of this morning states that at the meeting of the Grant reception committee last evening in Virginia, a dispatch to Hon. F. Tritle from H. M. Yerington was read, announcing that Grant would go to Virginia via Lake Tahoe, reach Carson on Sunday night and Gold Hill at 1 P. M. on Monday. The Virginians telegraphed to San Francisco last night to see if their original arrangements could not be adhered to, according to which programme Grant would pass through Reno to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. But it is probable that the Grant party, according to the telegram from Yerington, will go to Virginia via Tahoe, and that our citizens will not have an opportunity to see him here until he comes on Tuesday night on his way east.

Sir Astley Cooper's Vital Restorative: The great English remedy—has made more cures of Nervous Debility, Seminal Weakness, Lost Manhood, nocturnal emissions, lassitude, inability for mental labor, despondency, and such diseases as are induced by youthful follies and excesses, than all other medicines combined.

It is not a stimulant nor excitant, is perfectly safe to take, is NOT a quack nostrum, and produces results that are wonderful.

Why will you suffer? Send to A. E. Mintie, M. D., No. 11 Kearney street, San Francisco, for the Restorative, and be cured. Price, $2 per bottle. Four times the quantity, $10. Try a bottle. Dr. Mintie treats all private diseases successfully.

How to Save Money.

Instead of going to a doctor for a prescription, if you have Bright's disease, Diabetes, Pain in the back and loins, Smarting, Inflammation, Calculi, Brickdust deposit, or any trouble of the Kidneys or Bladder, buy a bottle of DR. MINTIE'S NEPHRETICUM, the great Buchu Compound. It is the most wonderful prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale druggists, say: "We regard Nephreticum as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggest, Portland, Oregon, says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors have given them up. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker. Price $1 25. oct 3

The Victim of the Accident.

The brakeman who met his death in the railroad accident this morning was J. B. Evans. He was an old employe of the Central Pacific, having once acted as conductor on this division, and for several years as brakeman. He leaves a wife and one child at Truckee. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was much respected.

The Dance Last Night.

The soiree in the hall of Winchel & Cuningham's new building was not largely attended last evening. About twenty couples were present. They spent a very pleasant evening, and were delighted with the music. Prof. Varney anounces that he will soon open a dancing school in Reno.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.

A Ledge of Fire-Proof Rock in California.

For the Reno GAZETTE.

Many years ago a stratum of peculiar clay was discovered near Milwaukee, Wisconsin, from which bricks were made. They proved of a yellowish color and were unsalable on that account. In the lapse of time, however, it was noticed that wherever those yellow, worthless bricks had been used in connection with limestone in the construction of furnaces, flues and the like, that the bricks were as uninjured by fire as were the limestones—till then the reliance for furnace building. At once the old, disused clay bank was reinstated, large kilns of brick put up and the city of Milwaukee had a near and ready source of great wealth. Soon the Milwaukee fire-proof brick were in demand in all the states of the Union and the province of Canada. Nay, more were shipped across the wide oceans and around the Horn. Most of the steamer furnaces, forges, mining and smelting works on the Pacific coast have been built out of Milwaukee brick, imported into the country at about ten cents apiece.

A SOURCE OF FUTURE WEALTH.

Now, right here in Sierra county, a ledge of rock exists that is singularly unaffected by the intensest heat and the most sudden plunges into water thereafter. It is stratified just right for easy quarrying. Water power is convenient, no dam being necessary, only a short flume. The rock is soft yet tenacious, admirebly adapted for sawing into blocks as desired. Furthermore, tests have been made of several years standing, as to the excellence of the rock in furnaces, forges and in chimney backs, and the satisfaction is complete. A stage road passes within a few rods of the ledge and the C. P. R. R. is but an easy day's drive away. This fire proof rock can be fashioned and laid down by the mills of the Comstock or supplied to the trade of this coast for one-fourth the cost of Milwaukee brick, while in many respects it is ten times better, as large blocks or peculiar shaped ones can be made at pleasure, thus saving expense of mortar, while securing greater strength. What enterprising man or firm will at once take hold and develop this new source of wealth? Consider what Milwaukee imported brick have cost this coast, and if this rock is equally as good it is easy to see that "ther's millions in it." J. G. LEMMON.

Sierra Valley, Oct. 22, 1879.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Freight Train Wrecked and a Brakeman Killed.

Soon after freight train No. 5 crossed the bridge this side of Verdi this morning a wheel broke near the middle and nearly half of it fell into the ditch. The break was through the hole which was left in the inside plate near the axle. The wheel was perfectly sound, the fracture being bright and clean. After turning a few times the wheel left the rail and an instant later in an indiscriminate smash. Thirteen cars lett the track and several of them are so badly broken up that they will probably be burned where they lie. Six or eight lie across the track and one upon the other. Several of the cars were loaded with wool marked P. & W., Boston, one was loaded with salmon for P. & W., Boston. Others contained wines and whiskey, beans, etc. The ties are shivered and and the rails bent for some distance. In one place the track is "slewed" two or three feet to one side for a distance of a couple of rails' length, showing the immense force with which such a heavy body as a moving train strikes. The saddest part of the story is that one of the brakemen, a very estimable young man named Evans, was thrown under the train and

THE CARS BEGAN TO PILE UP

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

He was found underneath one of the broken trucks, and from the appearance of the ground must have been struck in the abdomen by one of the wheels, which forced him into the ground and nearly cut him in two. The body was removed as tenderly as possible and placed in charge of Mr. Sanders, who brought it to Reno, where an inquest will be held as soon as the men belonging to the train can attend. The V. & T. passenger cars backed up to the wreck about nine o'clock, and the passengers, mail and express were transferred. The train left for Virginia about 11 o'clock. Wrecking cars from Wadsworth and Truckee were sent to the scene of the disaster at an early hour, and the track will probably be cleared by night.

A Christian Citizen Condemns Carson.

A prominent citizen of Reno was expressing his disapproval this morning of the desecration of the Sabbath by the City of Carson in giving General Grant a public reception to-morrow. He said: "They have no regard for the Christian Sabbath. I should think Deacon Parkinson would be ashamed of himself, by G—. Its a d—n shame to outrage the feelings of Christians in that manner. The Sabbath should be kept holy, by G—.

The Reform Club To-Night.

The regular meeting of the Reform Club will be held this evening in the Baptist church, where there will be room for a good audience to listen to Senator Powning's address upon "France." It cannot fail to be interesting. Proceedings commence at 7:30 sharp.

STEALING A RIDE.

How Two Tramps Beat Baylies.

When Baylies was a conductor on the Central Pacific railroad, two tramps on one occasion proved too sharp for him. He was one of the sharpest conductors on the line, and it was seldom that a tramp could beat the company out of a ride on his train. One night two dead-beats got on his train at Wadsworth, and laid themselves flat on the roof over the platform of a sleeping car. There they remained unobserved until the train had passed Verdi. By that time the moon had risen, and the cars were casting broad shadows on the snow. As the conductor sat down in the sleeping car for a rest, he saw shadowed on the snow the figures of the recumbent tramps overhead. His first impulse was to put them off, but thinking they were having a tough time of it where they were, he allowed them to remain undisturbed until about a mile from Truckee when he stopped the train and put them off, so they would have no chance to go out on the train from Truckee.

After his train had reached Truckee and departed, Conductor Baylies was sitting by the fire in the barroom of the Truckee Hotel, when in came the two tramps and asked him to take a drink with them. Rather enjoying the joke he complied, and they told him they were going to beat their way through to Sacramento. One of them said he would telegraph their safe arrival in Sacramento to Baylies at Truckee, if he would pay for the telegram. Baylies agreed to this, and immediately went out and told the conductor of the emigrant train that was about to start west, to look out sharp for the two dead-beats, relating the agreement about the telegram So when the emigrant train pulled out its conductor searched the cars carefully inside and out, but could see nothing of the tramps. But next day came the dispatch from Sacramento announcing their safe arrival. Baylies at last found out how they eluded the vigilance of the conductor of the emigrant train. As the train was about to start, they entered a passenger car from the rear door, and throwing themselves on the floor wormed their way forward under the seats. A number of women were sitting near the middle of the car, and, concealed by their skirts, the tramps lay on the floor against the side of the car, and made their trip in safety.

GRANT'S TOUR OF THE WORLD.

A Valuable Book.

J. R. Parker is canvassing Reno for Headley's life and travels of General Grant. It is the completest and most interesting history of the great soldier ever written The tour of the world just completed is one of the greatest feats of any man in any age.

He has visited nearly every civilized nation of any importance on the globe.

He has made the journey very leisurely; taking time, not only to view the splendors of royalty, but to observe the customs and peculiarties of each nation through which he has passed, to study carefully their resources, and to view all the wonders of nature and of art which are to be found in these various and widely separated lands.

Moreover, in the series of addresses made in welcome to General Grant, and in his responses to the same, the attitude of each of these nations to the United States, their political and commercial relations with us, and the steps which it is possible and desirable should be taken in order that closer and more prosperous relations may be maintained and perpetuated, are clearly set forth and discussed.

To follow him, therefore, in his journey, is to pass through doors which to other travelers have ever remained closed; to gain an inside view of the glittering splendors of royal palaces and courts in all the great nations of the earth; to visit all the world's great marts, and see all that the ingenuity and industry of man has accomplished; to behold all that is most wonderful and beautiful in nature and art; in a word, it is to behold in one brilliant panorama the greatest and best that the world has to offer to the eye and intellect of man.

It is also interesting, as giving a complete view of the place which this great Republic holds in the estimation of the crowned heads and statesmen of Europe, India, China and Japan, and to learn what are our political and commercial relations with each of the great nations of the earth.

Church Notices.

To-morrow, (Sunday) evening there will be "Children's Church" at Trinity church. This service is becoming quite a popular one and justly so, as no sight is more pleasing than to see the bright faces of the little ones assembled there, and no sound is more cheering than their voices as they sing their hymns. Morning service at 11 o'clock, evening service at 7 o'clock.

There will be divine service at the M. E. church to-morrow at 11 o'clock A. M. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M. Seats free, all are invited. Rev. C. McKelvey, officiating.

Rev. S. A. Ringo, will preach in the Baptist church to-morrow, morning and evening. Subject in the morning "The Defence of the Gospel." Subject in the evening "The Parable of the Good Samaritan." All are invited, seats free.

There will be Mass at the Convent Chapel to-morrow morning at half-past 10 o'clock. J. J. Callan officiating.

A Live Badger.

The proprietors of the Truckee Market have a badger that was recently captured in the hills about three miles from town. They keep him fastned to a log in the rear of their premises. The animal dug a comfortable hole for himself in the earth and it requires a long and strong pull on his chain to get him out. The shape of the badger is peculiar, as though he had been sat on a good deal. The animal displays two rows of white teeth in a very vicious manner when any human legs are near him. As to the quality of the steaks that may be got out of him the reporter was not informed. A badger roast might be fit to set before a king or Grant.

While in Virginia they will give "Cinderella or the Glass Slipper," the "Babes in the Woods" and "Robinson Crusoe." This is one of the best troupes that ever visited the coast, and all who can should hear them. They will not stop in Reno. They are under a twelve weeks' engagement in San Francisco.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00,

—(AND A(—

Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch FREE! FREE!! FREE!!!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2 50; on receipt of $1, articles to the value of $5, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send in Your Orders

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 9, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication, and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington St., Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and reponsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer you to the following firms: Blomgren Bros., 162 & 164 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 119 So. Clark St. Chicago.

Before Ordering, Read the Following:

All sums of money to the amount of $1 or over, should be sent by Registered Letter, Money Order or Draft on New York or Chicago. We will hold ourselves personally responsible for any money sent as above directed. All orders under $10 strictly cash. On orders of $10 or over, $5 must accompany the order, and balance, when desired will be collected on delivery, but no goods will be sent C. O. D. to a greater distance than 500 miles. Any money received for these goods after the stock is exhausted will be immediately returned. Postage stamps will be taken the same as cash if any amount less than $100.
